CASE NUMBER: 2:12CR06001-001

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

14. You shall have no contact with the victim in person, by letter or other communication devices, audio or visual devices, or through a third party, unless authorized by the supervising officer. You shall not enter the premises or loiter within 1,000 feet of the victim's residence or place of employment.
15. You shall have no contact with any child under the age of 18, without the presence of an adult and approved in advance by the supervising officer. You shall immediately report any unauthorized contact with minor-aged children to the supervising officer.
16. You shall allow the probation officer or designee to conduct random inspections, including retrieval and copying of data from any computer and any personal computing device that the defendant possesses or has access to, including any internal or external peripherals. This may require the temporary removal of equipment for a more thorough inspection. The defendant shall not possess or use any data encryption technique or program. The defendant shall purchase and use such hardware and software systems that monitor the defendant's computer usage, if directed by the probation officer.
17. You shall not reside or loiter within 500 feet of places where children under the age of 18 congregate, which includes primary and secondary schools, schoolyards, parks, playgrounds, shopping malls, daycare centers, carnivals, recreation centers, and arcades without approval of the probation officer.
18. You shall be prohibited from possessing or manufacturing any material, including videos, magazines, photographs, computer-generated depictions, or any other forms that depict sexually explicit conduct involving children or adults, as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2). Neither shall you enter nor frequent any establishment involved in the sex industry, including but not limited to adult bookstores, massage parlors, and strip clubs. You shall not utilize any sex-related adult telephone numbers. The supervising officer is authorized to monitor compliance in this area by obtaining relative records including but not limited to telephone, Internet, and credit cards.
19. You shall register as a sex offender, according to the laws of the state in which you reside, are employed, or are attending school. You shall provide verification of compliance with this requirement to the supervising officer.
20. You shall complete a sex offender evaluation, which may include psychological, polygraph, and completion of the ABEL assessment. You shall pay according to your ability and allow the reciprocal release of information between the treatment provider and supervising officer.
21. You shall participate and successfully complete an approved state-certified sex offender treatment program, including compliance with all lifestyle restrictions and treatment requirements of the program. The defendant shall allow reciprocal release of information between the probation officer and the treatment provider. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of the treatment according to the defendant's ability.
22. You shall not possess or use any computer with access to any on-line computer service without the prior approval of the supervising officer. This includes any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, or any other public or private computer network. You shall not have access to a modem during your term of supervision without the prior approval of the supervising officer.
23. You shall maintain a complete and current inventory of your computer equipment and provide it to the supervising officer. You shall provide a monthly record of computer usage and bills pertaining to computer access to the supervising officer.
24. You shall not use any software program or device designed to hide, alter or delete records/logs of your computer usage, Internet activities, or the files stored on the assigned computer. This includes the use of encryption, steganography (the art and science of hiding a message in a medium, such as a digital picture or audio file, so as to defy detection), and cache/cookie removal software.
25. You shall provide a complete record of all passwords and user identifications (both past and present) to the supervising officer and shall not make any changes without the prior approval of the supervising officer.
26. You shall submit your person, residence, office, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a U.S. probation officer, at a sensible time and manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. You shall warn persons with whom you share a residence that the premises may be subject to search.
